

Class Discussion: Dams

Curricular Connections: Grade Five Science

As students have learned, dams today can be harmful to the environment, whereas the older forms of irrigation where not. In grade 5 students learn about the Alberta wetlands and the preservation of those lands. How can the development of a dam be harmful to Alberta wetlands?